Grievance level III Supplement

On January 28, 2020 my albumin (protein levels) were still too low for any surgery. The colonoscopy bag, flap surgery or hip replacement.

But my Hemoglobin levels are on the rise at level 8. I don't know how good that is but Dr. Rockwell was excited about one # and disappointed in the other.

Rockwell still claims he won't do a surgery till two months after I heal or my albumin levels are over 20.

I reminded Rockwell that I am healing without the colonoscopy bag just as my pancreas and rectum healed, so I am pushing for the flap or hip or both. But Rockwell reminded me of my low protein levels that cause slow healing.

So I wait.
